Scope of Present Duties:

Currently, as a member of staff of the IAEA, I lead workshops and advise the IAEA's Member States on issues of economics, funding and financing, climate policy, EPC and PPA contracting and the establishment of funding mechanisms for 'back end' liabilities (i.e. costs associated with decommissioning and used fuel disposal).

Most Relevant Past Experience:

From 2005 to 2010 I was Senior Manager of the Ontario Government's Nuclear Funding & Financing Unit. During this period I implemented the Ontario Nuclear Funds Agreement - an arrangement for ensuring the funding of Ontario's five nuclear power stations' 'back end' liabilities - and also chaired the Commercial Team which negotiated (from 2007 to 2009) for the procurement of up to 3500MW of replacement nuclear generating capacity. For the past 5 years I have advised Member States of the IAEA on issues of economics, funding and financing, climate policy, EPC and PPA contracting and the establishment of funding mechanisms for 'back end' liabilities..

Educational Background:

Undergraduate (economics) at the London School of Economics (LSE); graduate work (economics) at the Universities of Essex (UK) and Warwick (UK).
